Bidders whose proposals shall be accepted, (and none-others,) will be forthwith netified, a d as early as practi-

of the acceptance of this proposal, will be deemed a notifi-cation thereof within the meaning of the act of 1846, and his bid will be made and accepted in conformity with this inderstanding.

Every offer made must be accompanied (as directed in Every offer made must be accompanied (as directed in the act of Geogress making appropriations for the naval service for 1846-'47, approved 19th August 1846,) by a written guaranty, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the effect that he or they undertake that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into an obligation within five days, with good and sufficient sureties, to furnish the supplies proposed. The hurean will not be obligated to consider any proposal unless accompanied by the suaranty required by the law; the competence of the guaranty to be estimed by the navy agent, district attorney, or the collector of the customs. Blank forms of proposals may be obtained on application to the navy agents at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, Bosion, New Tork, Philadeiphia, Baltimore, Washington, Norfolk, Pensacola, and at this bureau.

The attention of bidders is called to the samples and description of articles required, as, in the inspection before reoption, a just but rigid con parison will be made between the articles offered and the samples and contract, receiving none that fall below them; and their attention is also particularly directed to the kint resolution of March 27, 1854, in addition to the act of the 1 th August, 2428.
